

Inquiry for Couples

I offer individual sessions to couples who would like to address specific issues in their lives. This work is for couples who want to:

- Discover an amazing way to communicate honestly and clearly
- Strengthen their relationship to weather storms to come
- Resolve conflicts and irritations that persist and grow
- Find a way through divorce or separation with love

I combine The Work of Byron Katie together with Coaching techniques to support you on whatever topic you want to work on. I have worked with people and couples on many issues including relationships with partners, friends, family, careers, finances, sexuality, exam stress, body image, anxiety, loss, fears, health and much more.

I recommend a package of five 1.5 hour sessions (individual sessions each followed by three joint sessions)

*"Love and compassion, love and compassion are the words that came out of me to describe Nadine as a Facilitator of The Work. Soft gentle eyes, an open personality, big heart, no judgment and genuine. Nadine has so much love to share, and I can feel it in her presence. She loves doing The Work and loves facilitating the Work. I feel very comfortable, I trust her, I feel secured. I could feel her genuine will to help others to experience The Work, I could just feel her compassion towards me and that is so beautiful and so real. In the session, she gives space, she travels with me, as if the onion is being peeled layer-by-layer to get to the core, to what feels true to me - to get to my truth. It's been a mind-blowing experience doing the Work with Nadine. I feel truly honoured and lucky to have her as a Facilitator. Thank you, Nadine",
